OBITUARY

ALEXANDER HART

Tamworth. — At the age of 82 Alexander Hart passed away after having spent the past two-and-a-half-years confined to his bed at his home here.

When a young man Mr. Hart married Amelia Moore, of Ompah. To this marriage four daughters and one son were born. While the family were still young Mrs. Hart passed away at her home in Tamworth. Later, Mr. Hart married Pearl Mowbray. Of this marriage, two daughters and two sons were born.

The funeral service was held from the Hannah Funeral Home to the United Church where a large number of friends attended. The service was in charge of his pastor, L. B. Woods, who preached a comforting sermon to those in attendance.

Many floral gifts showed the esteem in which deceased was held. His eldest daughter, Mrs. Fred Shetlor (Hattie), of Napanee, pre-deceased him several years ago.

Those who are left to mourn are: His wife, and the following sons and daughters, Mrs. John Sherfield (Annie), Toronto; Mrs. Mark Boomhour (Maggie), Napanee; Mrs. Michael Donohue (Elsie), of Newburgh, and Alex Hart, of Enterprise; by his second wife, Jimmy Hart, of Cornwall; Mrs. L. Hughes (Fern), of Kingston; Mrs. Fred Barry (Jean), of Enterprise, and one brother, Nelson Hart, of Napanee.

The pall-bearers were Johnnie Young, Joseph McDonald, George Howes, Nathaniel Howes, Clarence Burns, and Leo Burns.

The body was placed in the family plot in the United Church Cemetery.

WILLIAM J. FITCHETT

MR. AND MRS. NORMAN FITCHETT celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary February 23. The bride is the former Effie Pearl Baldwin and Mr. Fitchett went by horse and cutter through snow-filled roads to be married at the Bay Parsonage by Rev. C. DeMille. They have lived all their lives at Hay Bay, where Mr. Fitchett farmed until a few years ago.

MR. AND MRS. FITCHETT spent the day quietly due to Mrs. Fitchett's health, but Mr. Fitchett, as is his usual custom, took his bride out for dinner. Several neighbors called with gifts and flowers in the afternoon. The family spent the evening with their parents and presented them with a gift and flowers, after which a bountiful lunch was served, along with a three-tiered wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. Fitchett have two sons, four daughters, 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Donald Huffman entertained the mothers of the baby band recently. Mrs. T. C. Armstrong was present and gave an inspirational talk explaining the work of the W. M. S. after which Mrs. Huffman showed pictures that Mary had taken on her trip abroad. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and Mrs. Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wagar and Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Wagar attended a Masonic banquet in Napanee on a recent Friday evening.

Several from the community attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Lillian Curl at the Wartman Funeral Home on Thursday, February 25, also the funeral of the late Marshall King at the Barry Funeral Home in Sydenham on Monday, February 29; also the funeral of the late Mrs. Everton VanLuven in Kingston, on February 29.

baskets of snapdragons, carnations, and shasta daisies for the marriage of Edna Cora Marguerite Martin, the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin, of Selby, to Harold James Horner, of London, son of Mrs. Oscar Oulton, of Belleville. Rev. Harold J. Snell officiated.

The wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Gordon Knapp, who accompanied the soloist, Mrs. S. R. Speed, who sang "O Promise Me" at the beginning of the ceremony, also "I'll Walk Beside You," during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her brother, Harvey E. Martin, the bride was radiant in a floor-length gown of bridal taffeta over nylon tulle. The fitted bodice, on empire lines, was fashioned with lilypoint sleeves and scoop neckline, outlined with Florentine lace sprinkled with pearls. The bell-shaped skirt fell gracefully to a chapel train. The double French illusion veil was held in place by a cap of Chantilly lace and seed pearls, graced with two side bows. Her jewellery was a
